

APPLICATION FORM
SUMMER SEMINAR IN PAPYROLOGY 2004
THE CENTER FOR THE TEBTUNIS PAPYRI
UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, BERKELEY

Personal information

- A. Name (last, first, middle initial):
- B. Home address:
- C. Work or school address:
- D. Preferred e-mail address:
- E. Telephone numbers (home and work/school):
One must have voice mail or equivalent -- please indicate.
- F. Citizenship:
If not U.S., please specify country and residency status.

Education

- A. Degrees:
Include all degrees earned, the institution from which awarded, and the date of award.
- B. Knowledge of ancient Greek and/or demotic Egyptian:
It is not required to have a knowledge of both languages.
Doctoral candidates: Indicate the number of years of study, level of study, courses taken, authors read, and degree of proficiency. Post-doctoral applicants: List courses taken and taught -- specifying which were at undergraduate and which at graduate level -- authors read and taught.

C. Other ancient and modern languages:

Indicate years of study and level of proficiency.

Latin:

Coptic:

Late Egyptian:

German:

French:

Italian:

Others:

D. If English is not your native language, please describe your English language ability:

E. What other courses in ancient studies have you taken or taught?

F. For doctoral candidates only:

What doctoral qualifying exams (oral and/or written) have you passed and when?

What do you expect will be the focus of your dissertation?

Who is your dissertation director?

For post-doctoral candidates only:

Title of dissertation, name of dissertation director:

G. List any relevant research, awards, publications:

Personal statement:

What do you expect to gain from participation in this seminar?

You may attach a separate sheet, but please limit your response to one page.

Names of referees:

For doctoral candidates, one of the referees should be the dissertation advisor.

1)

2)

The applicant must arrange to have two letters of recommendation (addressing in particular the applicant's Greek and/or demotic Egyptian language ability) sent directly by the referee to the address below.

This form and any attachments should be sent to:

Dr. T. M. Hickey
The Center for the Tebtunis Papyri
The Bancroft Library MC 6000
University of California, Berkeley
Berkeley, CA 94720-6000 USA

The postmark deadline for all application materials is 6 February 2004.